

I'M WAITING FOR SANTA CLAUS

Words By
JULIA
MARION
MANLEY

Music By
DORA
BURDGE

SUPPLEMENT TO THE ~~~~~ Sunday Post-Dispatch ~~~~~
DECEMBER 22, 1901.
BY PERMISSION OF SOL BLOOM CHICAGO.

I'M WAITING FOR SANTA CLAUS.

Words by JULIA MARION MANLEY.
Music by DORA BURDGE.

Moderato.

INTRO.

'Twas Christ-mas eve, and grow-ing late, the crowds had gone at last, The
The stran-ger's arms were filled with toys that he was tak-ing home, But bel-fry bells were hushed and still, the snow was fall-ing fast Twould when he heard the tot's sad plaint, his thoughts be-gan to roam To soon be mid-night, and down in an hum-ble neigh-bor-hood A where his dar-ling wait-ed, and he knew she'd glad-ly share Her Copyright, 1908, by Sol Bloom. International copyright secured.

608 81009, 1908.

ti - ny maid with long - ing heart, with - in a door - way stood; A treas - ures with that lit - tle girl who stood in sor - row there: "Here.

pass - er saw the lit - tle one who stood there in the cold. And take these toys. I've some for you— you need not be a - fraid— And thought of his own ba - by girl, whose love was more than gold— Said if your moth - er asks you where you got them, lit - tle maid, Just he: "What are you do - ing here? you should be home in - stead," "This say Old San - ta's part - ner met you while up - on his way, And

Is my home, the lot re-plied, and trust- ing- ly she said:
gave you these for Christ- mas just be- cause he heard you say!

REFRAIN.

"I'm waiting for San - ta Claus;..... I'm sure that he'll pass this way,..... Altho' he for-got to call on us Last Christ- mas day..... I know, sir, that he won't mind!..... Be-cause he is good and kind.....

That's why I'm here, sir, I'm wait-ing for San - ta Claus."....